Dear Community Partner,

As a civic-minded, community leader, you know the importance of public service.

Police departments are evolving to meet the changing needs of our increasingly diverse communities. Women are an essential element to the effectiveness of law enforcement. With the dramatic increase in the Latino population, it just makes sense to include more Latinas in law enforcement. This collaboration with the Elgin Community College, a designated Hispanic Serving Institution of Higher Learning, is just one more step in that direction. The LILE Scholarship is the only scholarship fund of its kind in the entire State of Illinois.

This inaugural annual event will also showcase the pioneers in policing in Illinois, as a way to inspire young women to consider a career in law enforcement. Just some of “Las Primeras” are Chicago Police Officer Irma Valles Weyer (1976), Aurora Police Officer Santos Garza (1978), Rockford Police Officer Irma Bustamante Olson (1978) and Peoria Police Officer Ruth Sandoval (1998) just to name a few.

If you have questions about the event or the sponsorship levels, please contact Jo Ann Armenta at latinasinlawenforcement@gmail.com or by phone at 847-826-8020.
